Hazel Brown

JUN 12, 1928 - JUN 17, 2015

“A Time to be born”

Hazel W. Brown was born June 12, 1928 in St. Louis Missouri to John H. Ware and Cecilia Norfleet Ware, whom have preceded her in death. Her eldest sister, Irene Ware Ross and youngest brother, Delbert Dee Ware preceded her in death.

“A Time to Love”

Hazel W. Brown has one child, Blaine Carmichael Ware. She was united in Holy Matrimony to Rudolph E. Brown who preceded her in death.

“A Time to Plant”

Hazel W. Brown’s education was within the St. Louis Public School System. She attained her degree in teaching at Stowe Teachers College, which allowed her to pursue her passion as a Kindergarten teacher of 42 years at Dunbar Elementary in St. Louis, Missouri. Hazel possessed a phenomenal memory. Remembering her students’ names and family details was just one example of her unique skill.

“A Time to Render”

“From Cradle to Row”, Hazel was a faithful member of Antioch Baptist Church. In more recent years Hazel joined Trinity Mt. Carmel with her niece, Lovie. She was a member of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Sumner Alumni Organization (Chapter 1946-1951), and Crusaders for Christ with Christ Southern Mission Church.

“A Time to Die”

A Beautiful life ended on June 17, 2015. Sister Hazel W. Brown answered her call. God saw that she was growing weary, so God did what he knew best.

To the family of Hazel Brown, our prayers are with each of you during this time of mourning. We were blessed with the privilege of providing services to Mrs. Brown. She was a blessing to us. She continued to share the word of God with her attendant while she was working for her. Mrs Brown, or Auntie (as Lovie called her) invited her attendant to visit Trinity on numerous occasions. She will be missed by us as well! May she rest in peace. Taria Dyson, Director Assured Health Services, LLC

Aunt Hazel was a Joy to be around so much wisdom, love and compassion in one person! I was so blessed that our paths crossed and that I got to know and experience the wonderful person that she was! I'm going to miss her, I remember one of the last Sunday's she was at church and she snuck and gave me a gift while I was ushering, a bracelet that said "faith" and I'm so glad I have faith and know that your no longer in any type of pain and resting well with the father! Thank you for everything through out the years! & I haven't popped my knuckles in 3 years because of that one time you fussed at me about it lol my prayers are definately with the family & you have my condolences!with LoveWeslie EverettTMC

I am glad I had the pleasure of sharing our routine hug and kiss the last Sunday she was in church...Mrs. Hazel Brown will be sorely missed by me and my daughter who sat across from her in front of the media booth. May GOD hold her family in the palm of his hand during this difficult time...GOD bless Mrs. Brown and her family. With heartfelt condolences and love, Robin Norman-Trinity Mt. Carmel Baptist Church
