I have so many pleasant memories that I can't just pick one. Not only were you beautiful outside, you were also so beautiful inside too. A beautiful, generous, wonderful, thoughtful and caring lady with a heart of gold. I will always cherish our last kiss, the last time I held your hand, your beautiful smile and your laughter. Your kindness was such a part of your nature that the little things you did made such a difference in many lives of people who knew you. Your generous spirit has touch my life in a precious way and not only were you a wonderful mother, you were a unique woman with the personality that drew many to you. You taught me so much about life, love, and giving. Those are the lessons I'll never forget in which have enriched my life in more ways than I can count. I love you, momma and I know you loved me too! "See you later alligator, after while crocodile, and not too soon raccoon", she would say!!

To the family of Ms. Connie Carpenter. I didn't know much about Ms. Carpenter, but if she was anything like her daughter Mrs. Petty she was a beautiful, loving lady. A good hearted person. A religious lady. :(old your head up and Rejoice. She's gone Home to a better place. No more pain, No more worries. We can't question God's doings. "Oh love divine, all love excelling," In trouble hearts you must " Keep dwelling, patiently waiting for "the Son" to say at Last " Thy Will Be Done." And hung on the cross and was Crucified, and he did it all so happy day.when the Sorrow of earth have passed away, We who have suffered will forever be free. To live with God in eternity, nothing is ever to hard to do. If faith is strong and your purpose is true so " Never Give Up" and never stop, just "Journey on to the Mountain Top"! I can remember coming to visit you in Mary Ryder Home and staying with you for hours, as we walked around as you told people I was one of your grand babies. You were so proud of us. You used to call everyday and I would talk to you. You'd ask me when I was coming back to see you and I'd reply when my mom came. I can hear you now saying, "you better come over here and give yo granny some suga" and you'd laugh that high pitched squeaky laugh lol....you loved getting kisses from us when we were little and grown and you did the same with my children...right now I am still in disbelief I don't know how to feel...I don't feel that you are gone yet so maybe that is why....I have been continuing my day as if I never got the news. I don't know if that is a good thing but I just haven't accepted it. I have tears coming out my eyes right now not because I have finally come to the realization that you are gone...but because I don't like talking about you being gone...but again I don't believe that you are. I'm just waiting to get the call from my mom that you just had a scare and the doctors got it wrong...but I won't it accept that you have left us...not right now I won't...!ll see you later granny I love you.

I spent alot of my childhood with my granny and I wouldn't trade those memories for anything in the world. I remeber walking with her to the store, helping carry whatever she needed me to. We used to go to Dairy Queen and eat ice cream, laugh, and talk. She gave me so much unconditional love that made me feel cared for and safe. I will always remeber the first day without her and it will never be the same. She will be my favorite place to visit when my mind is searching for peace. She will be so missed. I LOVE YOU GRANNY. ❤️❤️❤️

Deirdra, Darnella, Derek, Daryl & Family, Mom was and shall always be a special part of my life. Me being in a new city (St. Louis) and away from my usual family surroundings, I found Mom to be a warm and loving person. She was easy to talk to and welcoming in her gestures. During my time with Mom, I noticed an inner strength that only comes with time and experiences. I experienced how she loved you all and little Darrion during those days. She even accepted me as if I was a long time family friend, and during that time in my life I needed it more than words can express. Although many years have passed since I've seen her, I have often thought of her smile and soft, yet firm voice. To the family, cry for a while if you must, but rejoice in the fact you were surely loved by one that was both openly loveable & precious to remember. I offer my deepest condolences and pray GOD grants each of you PEACE in his infinite decision to call MOM home. LOVE YOU MOM, Kenneth my mom Connie Carpenter was the hardest working lady anyone has ever known, she would give you the clothes off my back if you had nothing to wear, if you we're hungry she would feed you, also keeping you laughing with the jokes she told, she just had a lovely disposition about myself, I know I wasn't a great son, but my mom loved me unconditionally, the day before she passed I was there, I kiss and stroke her head and whispered in her ear it's okay Mama you can go if you want to I understand, and I kiss her again the next day she passed away, I love you Mom, gone but never forgotten.

My precious memories of my mother are the days we spent together at Bentley's Extended Care. At Bentley's I shared unforgettable moments with the staff, care providers and the nurses that took excellent care of my mother. Vickie's the head nurse my mother would say. Precious, well she always had to have her Pepsi. Rick the male nurse, still owes me money for alimony, Jasmine, the best shower lady on earth cared for my mother like she was her own. Jennie kept the kisses coming and Jen would dance with her, Pleshette made sure she ate her food and let's not forget John. My mother said John could really cook. I'd like to take this opportunity to thank you all for there are no words to express my gratitude for the love and the level of care you showed mom. God Bless You All...Darnella Petty

Beautiful face, sweet smile, sassy, that you were.... Her name is Connie May Carpenter But don't you dare say Carpenter in front of her... What color is my hair she'd ask? And you'd better not say gray... What you better say is black to keep a smile on her face... When you walk in a room with her...get ready to give up some kisses... And you could bet your last dollar she was prepared to tell you about her mister.... Her laugh was infectious...her smile so unique A loving Grandmother that's what she was to me.... So when you feel like crying...suck those tears right up... And think about the smile she left to grow inside all of us... Don't cry for her, instead, be happy still... And know that though her physical is gone, this was all in God's will... So keep smiling Moma, don't stop laughing Auntie, stay strong Uncle Derrick and Uncle Darryl for the rest of the family... Her legacy will go on, her memory will not fade away...and one day by the grace of God, we will see her again in His Heavenly place. Danielle Battle Your granddaughter
