Min Daugherty and I served with Universal Kings Ministries at Missouri Veterans Home. He was faithful and taught from a Jewish/Judaic perspective, but explained everything from a Christian perspective. I loved the way that he ministered in song. He would always play and sing my favorite song, Jesus Loves Me, on my day that I preached. We will miss him, but know that his legacy will live on. We will see him again. His testimony of Life and Love in Yeshua/Jesus will continue. Pastor Rubbie Manson Brooks
