Rosie Louise Ell

DEC 24, 1958 - SEP 5, 2019

Rosie Louise Ell was born on December 24, 1958 in Saint Louis, Missouri to Louise Ell and Cecil. She was the seventh of nine children. Both parents, two sisters and one brother preceded her in death.

Rosie, at a very early age, grew up in the Walkers Temple Baptist Church along with her siblings.

Rosie departed her life on Thursday, September 5, 2019 for her Heavenly home.

Rosie birthed one child, Edward Lamar Ell, Sr., whom also preceded her in death.

Rosie was a caring and loving person. She loved to feed her neighbors and children in her apartment complex, especially during the holidays; whatever she had, she shared. She could make a meal out of anything, she would give her last.

Rosie loved her family, family gatherings, cooking and just having a joyous time. Rosie also loved watching Lifetime, Hallmark and the Game Show Network. She would say “All I have is from my God”; “He’s my friend” and “I’m forever grateful”.

Rosie leaves to cherish her memories: her grandson ~ Edward Lamar Ell, Jr.; three sisters ~ Alma, Inez and Lavern; two brothers ~ Ruben and Noah; one brother-in-law ~ Johnnie Mix; one sister-in-law ~ Rose Marie Ell; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

I brings me such sorrow to know that you are no longer with us. My blues buddy, my bingo pal; you will be truly missed. Rest on pretty lady love Toni

Danne Scoggins - George posted:

I know of Mama Rosie from a child that was hers, but not of her blood. The love, affection, and support shown to this child says much about the person Rosie was. To her family and friends, I wish you peace. Know that Rosie will be remembered with love by many.

T thanks cousin. She really looked out for me and these kids. I love and miss her already. But I know I have all my cousins and dad to lean on now.

Momma Rose, this was our trip to Washington DC, 8/16/18. This the memory of you I will carry with me for the rest of my days. Thank you for helping me raise your only grandson and my 3 other children too. You instilled so much love, joy and happiness in all 5 of us. You mean to me more than you know. We'll all be here for "Lil Pooh" go rest our angel. Love Ayanna aka Tracy, your daughter in law.
