I worked with Stella at Magellan Healthcare. She was a very sweet lady. She always spoke highly of her Son's. I can remember the name Lance. She loved her white cars.

The Lord knows our frame; and remembers that we are dust but from everlasting to everlasting his mercy is with us who fear him and his righteousness with children's children. RIP Stella our friend, playmate and neighbor in years past. our sincere condolences to Rose, Frank and others that remain. Rev. C.L. Clay and the entire Clay Family:
