Dwight Lamont Harrell

JAN 3, 1970 - SEP 5, 2020

Dwight Harrell was an original. A man of character, integrity, strength. A hard worker dedicated to living his best life. A kind, caring life. Dwight was all thing bright and beautiful. His many friends would say "he's a really good dude". His family says, "He was the best of the best". Dwight was a loving son, father, brother, nephew, cousin and friend. Deep thinker, wise beyond his years, intelligent, gentle, helpful, and thoughtful. Dwight.

Tyran sent a virtual gift in honor of Dwight.

I can't believe that you're gone. I remember times over Daddy's house when we used to talk about each other, but that was all love ❤️. Love is not something that God 🙏 does; it's Who He is. God 🙏 is the source of our ability to love ❤️. And when we look to God 🙏 as the standard of what loving looks like, it changes how we treat each other. I love you Dwight, RIP!

To my big cousin, a laid back funny cool guy. You had so much of our grandfather's spirit, and personality. Can cook and work that barbecue grill. You always made sure the people around was ok. Whenever we saw each other you would always ask "lil cousin are you ok, do you need anything?" Was always there to lend a helping hand. You will be deeply missed. We love you Dwight. SLEEP PEACEFULLY

Cousin Mia lit a candle in honor of Dwight.

To my laid-back,, always funny, caring cousin. You will be deeply missed. I laugh every time I think about the Barbie doll incident. I smile when I think about the compliments you gave me. You were a stand-up, one of a kind man. There will never be another like you! I love you and will never forget you ❤️!
