This is definitely a sad time for everyone losing another soldier. Min. Chapman loved people especially young people. I'll never forget the bbqs him and his wife would invite me and my kids(5) to and made sure we had everything we needed , but I don't think i'll forget the time he saw how pleasing God was more important to me than buying game systems for my boys and I couldn't afford it so him and his wife bought one for them. The look on his face alone was priceless and my children still talks about that moment even though they are all grown up now, lol. It's all about LOVE. REST ON SOLDIER ❤️
