Woodrow Weston

MAY 20, 1958 - MAY 23, 2022

Woodrow Weston was born on May 20, 1958 to the union of Joseph and Addie Mae Weston in St. Louis, Missouri. He was the 6th of 7 children. His parents and sister, Mary Etta Weston preceded him in death.

Woodrow, best known as “Woody” graduated from Delmar High School in St. Louis, Missouri. In his early, Woody displayed a love for boxing starting out at Kingdom House Southside Community Center. Years following, he worked for the State Hospital in downtown St. Louis.

Woody had a strong love for dancing and a passion for music at all points of his life. If you saw woody at an event , he was always dressed up and the life of the party. Woody also had many successful years training and owning dogs.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his wife ~ Carolyn Weston; daughter ~ Jeanna Weston; three brother ~ Joe Weston, Jr., Ronnie (Brenda) Weston, and Dale Weston; two sisters, Theresa Weston Facen and Catherine Wolfork; and a host of step-children, nieces, nephews, cousins, and step-grandchildren.
