Reginald V. Van Hook

MAY 31, 1958 - AUG 30, 2022

Reginald was one of four children (oldest son) born to the late Alvin Van Hook and Cevoria (Hall) Van Hook, on May 31, 1958 in Saint Louis, Missouri at Homer G. Phillip Hospital.

Reginald attended Gunloch and Mallickrodt Grade School and graduated from Northwest High School; later he began attending Florissant Valley Community College.

Reginald moved to Los Angeles, California, where he worked as a chef. He loved cooking and watching his family enjoy eating his food.

Reginald played football for a brief moment with the Northwest High School Blue Devils team. However, his passion was blowing the Trumpet for the Northwest Band and Concert Choir.

Reginald relocated back to Saint Louis, Missouri and started working at General Motors, where he retired from after thirty years of employment.

Although Reginald was known for going from zero to ten in a matter of seconds, it was later followed with a sincere apology and tears. He loved reading the newspaper, watching television all night and also enjoyed the Saint Louis Baseball Cardinals.

Reginald was not only a “momma’s boy”, he loved his daughter, Cheri, family, friends and protected his twin sisters, Karen and Sharon, as if he were their dad. He’d always tell the guys “Those are my sisters! Don’t mess with them!”

Reginald started attending church months ago on a regular basis, despite residing in a nursing home.

Reginald depended on his sister, Karen for everything! He’d tell everyone “That’s my sister! And whatever she says is right!” She’d visit him on a regular basis, taking him snacks, sodas, cigarettes, clothes and anything else he thought he needed or wanted. On August 30, 2022, Karen received the most devastating phone call a family could receive. "Your brother has passed away." I'm so grateful I took my brother to Cleveland, Ohio to his last family reunion.

Reginald leaves to cherish: one daughter ~ Cheri Hunter; two grandchildren ~ Derice Williams and Daija Woods; two great grandchildren ~ Kinslei Williams and Harmony Williams; three sisters ~ Sharon Van Hook-Steele, Karen Van Hook and Jennifer Wright Austin; five brothers ~ Cedric Van Hook, Alvinlyn Wright, Andre Collins, Antonio (Daniele) Collins and Derrick Taylor (Latoria) of Saint Louis, Missouri; one uncle ~ Acive Van Hook (Ercelean); one aunt ~ Tinnie Hall of Colorado; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

With death all around us it's becoming a norm, having to plan funerals is like planing birthday parties, we know it's coming every year but admit we not ready to age. Red we were not ready for you to leave and you will live on in our memories. God bless and accept this one into your home
