Unk.. as I referred to him, even tho he wasn't my uncle. But he always treated me like family. Whenever we ran into each other asked if I needed anything. Everyone knew his love for his Mother and now they're reunited. ☐ Miss y'all ❤️ Rest up Unk.. U ain't gotta work so hard now. As always.. Jessica

There was never a day that Jerome missed caring for his mother. He was indeed a concerned family man and that kindness transcended to all who knew him. I can only imagine your joy and happiness being in the presence of our SAVIOUR and all your loved ones. Peace

I will always remember him walking his mother down the hall to see my mother, Ms. Jones at the Zion Corner Apartments. Now he can push her down the golden hall in Heaven to see my mommy. Rest in Heaven Jerome

Jerome was a wonderful man and a great friend to me. We met at Spectrum and he would give me rides to and from, didn't want anything for his troubles but I made sure he was reimbursed. I tried telling him multiple times to leave the job, but always got 'one more year'. He's gonna be greatly missed by plenty of people.
