Devyn Bolden

SEP 19, 2004 - JUL 13, 2023

Devyn Me'kael Bolden was born on September 19, 2004 in St. Louis, Missouri to Madge Bolden and Dustin Johnson. He was a proud 2023 graduated of Hazelwood West High School where he won medals and earned varsity letters for swimming. Devyn loved his family, and the feeling was mutual! Our six-foot teddy bear was most known and loved for his sense of humor, practical jokes and ability to find fun in almost any circumstance. Devyn enjoyed all genres of music, having recently attended his first heavy metal concert. Also he started DJ lesson and became a fan of vinyl records. Everywhere Devyn traveled, which he loved to do, he wanted to visit the local record store and the beach. Devyn was extremely talented, having played saxophone, violin, drums and guitar, in addition to being a strong visual artist. While playing video games, reading comics, fishing, and riding rollercoaster were also things he enjoyed, one of Devyn's first loves was train-from the animated Thomas The Train to actual Locomotive. In fact his knowledge of trains were quite impressive. Devyn also loved animals, especially his dog Dempsey which he found while volunteering at an animal shelter. Dempsey will surely miss Devyn. Of all Devyn enjoyed, food was something he greatly appreciated. As a kid, his great-grandmother Shirley (a.k.a. GG) gave him the nickname "Honey Bun", which he quickly shed once he became a teenager. Some of his favorite food/drinks included pizza, sweet tea and cheese or anything with cheese in it. Devyn leaves in love: his mother ~ Madge Springmeyer; stepdad ~ Derek Springmeyer; dad ~ Dustin Johnson; grandmothers ~ Pamela Robinson and Penny

Devyn was at our house a lot. I'd get asked "can Devyn come over?" Next I knew, we had an extra kid! Once, my youngest was tired and being a crab. She looked at Devyn and said "Are you going home now?!?!?" Devyn cracked up. So after that she asked EVERY TIME if he was leaving. I asked her why. "I like his laugh. It's fun to tease a big kid!"
