Daniel Carson Davis

MAY 12, 1949 - FEB 14, 2024

On May 12, 1949, GOD CALLED into existence Daniel Carson Davis. Daniel was born to Cora Mae Davis and Eddie Jones.

Daniel spent 52 years of his adult life with his beautiful wife Brenda Joyce Davis, formerly Brenda Joyce Cunningham.

In the early years, Daniel attended Dunbar Elementary School in Kinloch Missouri. As a great sports enthusiast, Daniel loved watching college level and professional football and basketball. He also played football and basketball at his high school, Kinloch High School. He later attended Central Missouri State University in Warrensburg, Missouri, before enlisting in the United States Army.

Daniel was stationed in Vietnam while in the U.S. Army and was a supply specialist. He was honorably discharged. After returning from the army, Daniel worked at Weyerhaeuser, where he met his best friends (family friends) Charles and Lorraine Woodson, his care givers.

He later joined the St. Louis County Police Department. His career as a police officer spanned 25 years.

Both Daniel's parents proceeded him in death, along with his aunt, Ruby Davis; his uncle, Columbus Davis and his uncle, Hugh Davis.

Daniel leaves to cherish his memory: his loving wife ~ Brenda Joyce Davis; one brother ~ John (Regina) Davis; three sisters ~ Joyce Peebles, Beverly Harper and Gloria Jenice Robinson; one sister-in-law ~ Thomasine Cunningham (Edmond Sr.); one goddaughter ~ Christina Reynolds; and a host of nieces
