Jacqueline Marie Dabney

JUL 20, 1951 - JUN 1, 2024

Jacqueline Marie Dabney was born on July 20, 1951 in St. Louis, Missouri to John H. Nance and Mary Jo Nance. Both parents preceded her in death along with three sisters Cecilia Carruth, Marilyn Rush and Angela R. Nance; two brothers, Richard L. Nance and Roger L. Nance; and a niece, Monica Nance. Jacqueline was the fifth child to be born of this union.

Jacqueline confessed her life to Christ at an early age in 1964 on an Easter Sunday, at Mount Vernon Missionary Baptist Church, under leadership of Reverend Taylor. Jacqueline was educated in the St. Louis Public School District and graduated from Beaumont High School. While attending Beaumont she also attended Forest Park Community College for two night a week, receiving college credits. She held her educational endeavors with high standards.

In 1972 she was united in Holy Matrimony to the late Terry L. Cross. They were blessed with two sons Kevin and Terrance. Terry and Jacqueline often had discussion about her finishing her degree. She promised him she would finish her degree and she kept her promise. She received her degree in Criminal Justice and Psychology from Maryville University. During this process, she became a single mother. It took a while because of family obligation and providing for her children as a single mother. On August 20, 1988 Jacqueline remarried to Mr. Derrel Dabney. No children were born to this union and they had a great life together.

Jacqueline also enjoyed doing ride-a-long with the St. Louis Police Department for quite sometime. Until she experienced how the system worked for some but not for others, so she decided to move on to working for St. Paul Insurance Company. She was there for twenty-five years while working she also went to school in the evenings. No one knew of this but her sons. She was dedicated and determined to making a better life for herself and her sons. She was a Proud and Devoted Mother!
