Sam I cannot say I know what you and your family are going through, I can only imagine. I know there is an empty space in your heart that nothing but him will fill. But know that as you greive him there is one who will comfort you, who will wrap you in his mantle of comfort, love and protection and soak up your tears you cant help but shed, He knows how much you love and miss Kevontae and He will never leave you alone. He gave him to you for only a short while, and since He loved him first and loved him best He called him home.Be brave my niece, be strong, your aunt D
