“ I went to Pine Lawn Elementary with Justin. We would fight all the time but were inseparable. He lived next door to my Aunt and Uncle. I was looking for him and tried finding him on Facebook. Then I stumble across this and I asked my cousin Darlene and told me this was him. I'm so sorry for his loss of life, I was hoping that he had changed his life since our troubled childhoods. Rest peacefully

“ Man, bro I'm sitting here hurt like I lost another brother! Well we were brothers! We both got love for model cars and that's how we met through Instagram! Past few weeks I was feeling a void but couldn't put my finger on it! Woke up this morning and one of our club brothers brung it to my attention! Cold thing about it is that I'm one of the last people to chat with you on ig on your last post! Rest in paradise my brother! My condolences to your family and loved ones! I had wished you a happy Father's Day and everything when you posted the picture of your baby! We got a few models coming out in your memory! Until the day my brother! 1love!

“ It's coming close to a year since you left us. It has been a struggle realizing you're gone. Everytime I lay something down and can't find it, I go talk to your ashes telling you to stop playing with me. I always loved you and always will. The babies are doing fine. Little momma (Anila) is more like you than anyone. Camm is a senior now and is on Mizzou football team, Missy, is being her, your little big sister, is stiiil her sweet self. Everybody misses you very much

“ Dear son, I'm sorry it took me so long to post a memory of you. I miss so much. I keep waiting to see you walk down the street, coming in the house. Yes, yes you were a handful growing up, knocking holes in the wall, tapping me in the head with a hammer, pulling up my plants, etc and the list goes on and on and on. You were an amazing person. Love you and always will.

“ You will never know Love's Depth
Until it is Gone. ...
I'very heard it said that people come into our life for a reason bringing Something we must learn.
And we are led to those who helps us most to grow if we let them and we help them in return. Son I learned to not to stop careing for other and I enjoyed your time with you and my family you are family .Some time all the Love in the World is not enough to save something
In these cases it is not a matter of fault from either person Justin I try to save you from the pain but I know God have a place for you Son now you can rest in peace.
You left us a very special gift and good memories I will never forget our time together

Thank you very much for your kindness and flowers. IT hurts me to know you left us so soon Justin son I will always keep you alive in mind Heart .Love Mamma RIP “ Justin Hubbard we have been friends for more than 21 years. Since 12 years old, while living off riverview and attending Baden Elementary you have been my best friend; always a confidant and supportive member of my family. I loved you. I did not get enough chances to say that to you, or not often enough in life, but thank you for never allowing me to go on without knowing it. This world was simply not fair enough, just enough, loving enough, true enough, kind and good enough for you - beautiful soul. Thank you for all the years you left me.

See you in the clouds.
Byron

“ Justin was a great friend and an awesome father. He didn't want anything in this world but to take care of his kids Jace and A'Nila. He would always have a smile on his face even if he was mad. You were and always will be my best friend for life. I will love you always.

“ I never had the opportunity to meet Justin in person and I surely hate that. Even though we only had phone conversations and text messages he actually saved my life. I know that God sent him to be in my life but I didn't think he would take him back before I could actually hug him and thank him face to face. Justin you will forever be in my heart. To the family he was such a special person and I'm so sorry for your loss. I'm praying for you all..R. I. P Honeybun!!!
